II. EXPLANATION OF WHY REFUND IS PROPER

On July 23, 2002, the PTO issued a Final Rejection in the above-identified application. On November 21, 2002, Applicants filed a petition for one month's extension of time (to November 23, 2002) and an Amendment that was designed to place the application into condition for allowance (or at least into better condition for appeal). Two months later, not having received the anticipated Notice of Allowance (or even an Advisory Action), Applicants' representative telephoned the PTO and was told that the Amendment had not been matched with the file. Applicants therefore are filing a copy of the November 21, 2002 Amendment, along with a postcard receipt which provides evidence that that Amendment was in fact received by the PTO. However, Applicants must also now file a petition for two months' additional extension of time, along with a Notice of Appeal, in order to maintain the application in a pending status. Since the two-months' extension and Appeal are necessitated by the PTO's failure to provide a timely response to the Amendment that was filed on November 21, 2002, it is respectfully requested that the fees in question be refunded.
